“The Gift of Christmas”

Many fans purchased Juice’s holiday CD “The Gift of Christmas.” As of now, it is no longer available on the CD format. However, you can download the album on both Apple Music and Amazon Music. The only difference is the Apple Music store has the Deluxe Edition with two extra songs.

Once, downloaded, feel free to burn to a CD and give as a gift to a loved one or yourself.

JuiceNewtonMusic Facelift

The official site looks great and thank you for the many compliments I have received on it. However, I will be giving it a facelift in the new year. If you visit it during this time, you will receive a Coming Soon page. The Facebook page will always be up.

I am trying to offer more yet keep costs down. As many of us are aware, prices are high or rising everywhere. However, I will continue to give the best site to you and to Juice.

Remembering A Road Warrior

Bill Volkman was a devoted fan who had the distinct pleasure of following Juice’s tours and enjoying a unique experience.

I met Bill many times and he was always so appreciative and kind. He and I would talk to Otha Young before shows and after and visit with Juice while she signed autographs.

Sadly Bill is no longer with us but he is a prime example of a dedicated fan and wonderful person can be.

Rest in peace Bill. We miss you!!

Juice and Paul History

Many fans remember the first time they met Juice. This was my first time meeting her. This was in 1991 backstage at the Crazy Horse Steak House & Saloon in Santa Ana California.

I had wanted to meet Juice since the LP "Juice" was released. When I finally got my chance, I was in awe. However, allow me to tell you the story about how, even with a backstage pass, I still almost did not get to meet her.

Maxine Young, mother of Otha Young and former fan club President, sent me a backstage pass to meet Juice. This was a perk of being a member back then. I got my ticket to the concert and was set to go see and listen and enjoy.

When I arrived at the show, I was a bit early. So, I sat at the bar and had a drink and bite to eat. I saw a gentleman who looked like he was in management of the place and he was. I showed him my pass and he took it from me and said he would go see about getting me to see Juice.

Thirty minutes passed and I watched him and he never went backstage to talk to Otha or Juice about the pass. I did not know how it worked but I did know he was not going to help me.

I got the pass back and waited until I saw Otha. I was hoping to see him. I knew he would be there. Approximately, 15 minutes later, Otha came out of the door from backstage and I called out to him. He was as nice as could be and said that he would come get me and to meet him here.

I was ecstatic not only because meeting Juice was just about to happen but I met Otha and he was so kind and down to earth.

After the show was over, Otha true to his word met me and was bringing me back. Security stopped me but Otha said, “No, no he is with me.” They let me go and I was finally backstage.

Otha called out to Juice as she was getting changed and when she emerged, Otha introduced me and I was in awe! I was finally face to face shaking the hand of a talented person I admired. The photo above was taken that evening. I saw her many times at the Crazy Horse and got pictures each time with Juice and Otha.

Over the years, I have known the band members and I am friends them today. What has this got to do with Christmas and the holidays? We dream big this time of year. Your gifts will arrive, they don't always show the day of but they do come. Meeting Juice and Otha and the band and met Maxine Young was a blessing and a gift. Never lose sight of what you feel you want but never lose sight of what you have.

Juice and Retirement

Juice has been keeping busy with her horses and family. Music is part of her soul; however, the touring can be very daunting. Like most of us, she is enjoying this stage of her life and doing what she wants to do.

Juice never wants to lose sight of her fans. She still appreciates everyone who supported her long and stellar career. This is why she still signs autographs for her fans all over the world via the mail.

Autographs

The autographs by mail I am very happy to report has been an amazing success! Juice is very moved by the requests and of course, she is thrilled to give back to her fans. The autograph offer is on hold from 11/15/2025-01/02/2026.

Please note, that Juice nor myself have stock of items to be autographed. Feel free to download a photo or send in a single sleeve or CD cover, whatever it is you want autographed. However, do not send anything glass or fragile please.

Keep in mind that Juice nor JuiceNewtonMusic.com is responsible for damaged items. I sent LP covers to Juice and when they came back to me, two were almost destroyed by the post office machines and they were in boxes made for shipping records. Just know it can happen.

Facebook Page Chat

This past fall, we had another fan club chat on Facebook. It was so wonderful to chat with everyone and answer questions live. Yes, we will do it again in the spring.

Wishes for 2026

I want to wish everyone a very HAPPY NEW YEAR!! I sincerely enjoy the feedback you all send in and Juice loves hearing from her fans.

HAPPY HOLIDAYS to everyone!!

Love and Happiness,

Paul and Juice
